Women and Resistance in Contemporary Eastern Europe

Instructor: Dr. Oksana Lutsyshyna E-mail: lutsyshyna@austin.utexas.edu Teaching assistant: Lera Toropin

Email: toropin@utexas.edu

Class meets: 10 a.m.-11:30 a.m. via Zoom

Office Hours for Oksana: 12-1 p.m. TW, and by appointment

Course description:

This course will examine works of a number of Eastern European women writers, such as Olga Tokarczuk (Poland), Natalka Babina (Belarus), Oksana Zabuzhko (Ukraine), Slavenka Drakulić, Dubravka Ugrešić (Croatia), Herta Müller (Romania – Germany), Sofi Oksanen (Finland), Ludmila Ulitskaya and Ludmila Petrushevskaya (Russia), and trace their role and involvement in resisting not only political regimes but also gender-based oppression. We will also read supplemental articles, interviews, and secondary sources to provide a general understanding of culture, politics, and gender roles in Eastern Europe. The course is writing-intensive and deals with various foreign cultures and contexts.

Through writings and class discussion, students will discuss the forms and repercussions of women's resistance in regard to recent issues and events within this strategic region. This is a writing-intensive course, not a composition course. You will use writing to demonstrate mastery of the subject matter, to synthesize ideas, to learn concepts, and to explore ideas. You will still be responsible for grammar, punctuation, spelling, and style. This class also carries the ethics flag. This means that we will engage in ethical reasoning - how to think critically about, and trace the application of, certain values expressed in the readings, and to how to compare them to the ones in use in the USA.

Disclaimer

The students should come to class with an open mind and ready to discuss complex, at times controversial and difficult issues, such as totalitarianism, violence, sexually explicit material, drug and alcohol abuse, and others. This class aims at providing a safe environment for everyone; therefore the students are expected to treat each other, and the instructor, with respect and courtesy. If you feel that you would prefer not to deal with such topics, you are advised to drop this course.

Writing Flag

This course carries the Writing Flag. Writing Flag courses are designed to give students experience with writing in an academic discipline. In this class, you can expect to write regularly during the semester, complete substantial writing projects, and receive feedback from your instructor to help you improve your writing. You will also have the opportunity to revise one or more assignments, and you may be asked to read and discuss your peers' work. You should therefore expect a substantial portion of your grade to come from your written work. Writing Flag classes meet the Core Communications objectives of Critical Thinking, Communication, Teamwork, and Personal Responsibility, established by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board.

Ethics Flag

This course carries the Ethics flag. Ethics courses are designed to equip you with skills that are necessary for making ethical decisions in your adult and professional life. You should therefore expect a substantial portion of your grade to come from assignments involving ethical issues and the process of applying ethical reasoning to real-life situations.

Global Cultures Flag

This course carries the Global Cultures flag. Global Cultures courses are designed to increase your familiarity with cultural groups outside the United States. You should therefore expect a substantial portion of your grade to come from assignments covering the practices, beliefs, and histories of at least one non-U.S. cultural group, past or present.

Course Introduction

Grading Evaluation:

Quote analysis, on authors of choice (4)	20 %
Annotated bibliography	15 %
Final paper	35 %
(15 % – first draft, 20% – second/final)
Group presentation	20%
Participation	5%
Discussion Board	5%
Total:	100%

There will be separate files on Canvas describing the assignments.

- Overall, the more structured assignments will include four quote analyses (1 page each), annotated bibliography (3 entries), and two drafts of the final paper (8 pages or so each).
- A less structured, shorter, low-stakes Discussion Board writings will ask the students to respond to a prompt, and given full credit as long as the student produced an entry.

University Policies:

Class Recordings: Class recordings are reserved only for students in this class for educational purposes and are protected under FERPA. The recordings should not be shared outside the class in any form. Violation of this restriction by a student could lead to Student Misconduct proceedings.

Sharing of Course Materials is Prohibited: No materials used in this class, including, but not limited to, lecture hand-outs, videos, assessments (quizzes, exams, papers, projects, homework assignments), in-class materials, review sheets, and additional problem sets, may be shared online or with anyone outside of the class unless you have my explicit, written permission. Unauthorized sharing of materials promotes cheating. It is a violation of the University's Student Honor Code and an act of academic dishonesty. I am well aware of the sites used for sharing materials, and any materials found online that are associated with you, or any suspected unauthorized sharing of materials, will be reported to Student Conduct and Academic Integrity in the Office of the Dean of Students. These reports can result in sanctions, including failure in the course.

COVID: To help keep everyone at UT and in our community safe, it is critical that students report COVID-19 symptoms and testing, regardless of test results, to University Health Services, and faculty and staff report to the HealthPoint Occupational Health Program (OHP) as soon as possible. Please see this link (Links to an external site.) to understand what needs to be reported. In addition, to help understand what to do if a fellow student in the class (or the instructor or TA) tests positive for COVID, see this University Health Services link. Special Accommodations: At the beginning of the semester, students with disabilities who need special accommodations should notify the instructor by presenting a letter prepared by the Services for Students with Disabilities Office. To ensure that the most appropriate accommodations can be provided, students should contact the SSD Office at 471-6259 or 471-4641 TTY.

Policy on Scholastic Dishonesty: Students who violate University rules on scholastic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary penalties, including the possibility of failure in the course and/or dismissal from the University. Since such dishonesty harms the individual, all students, and the integrity of the University, policies on scholastic dishonesty will be strictly enforced. Refer to the Student Judicial Services website for official University policies and procedures on scholastic dishonesty.

Open Carry

- * All guns must be concealed at all times in line with the Campus Concealed Carry legislation. If an/the instructor or student(s) sees any sign of a gun in class, the UT police will be called immediately per the UT implementation policy for the statute.
- * For responsibilities of concealed gun permit holders on campus, see UT's information page: https://campuscarry.utexas.edu/students (Links to an external site.)
- * Here is UT's general information website about campus carry: https://campuscarry.utexas.edu/ (Links to an external site.)

Zoom Etiquette:

To make this a viable learning environment, we ask you to abide by the following guidelines:

- Find a guiet space where you would not be disturbed during the Zoom session.
- Conduct yourself as you would in a face-to-face meeting.
- Clothing is not optional! Dress comfortably, but remember that you are in a public setting.
- Have your video on, unless you are experiencing technical difficulties (contact us if those persist). If your video is off, we would assume that you are not present for the session.
- Mute your microphone when you're not speaking. This would help limit background noise.
- When you wish to speak, raise your hand or post a hand icon in Zoom.
- To ensure optimal connectivity, close all other windows/applications on your device.
- To hear and be heard better, consider using a headset with external microphone.
- Be aware that you are on camera, and avoid doing other tasks during the class meeting (checking email, updating social networks, checking your phone, etc.)
  - Tentative Schedule (subject to change)
