

Spring 2017
EDP 194 Unique # 11070

Colloquium for the HDCLS Family

- Jan. 18: Welcome, introductions all around
Immediately followed by a fireside chat with one of the most renowned educational psychologist of our time, Dr. Patricia Alexander
- Jan. 25: Faculty Pecha Kucha/Data Blitz (2 of us): Toni Falbo, Kristin Neff
- Feb. 1: Faculty Pecha Kucha/Data Blitz (3 of us)
- Feb. 8: Faculty Pecha Kucha/Data Blitz (2 of us): Stephanie Cawthon
- Feb. 15: How to envision your future beyond finishing the program: Academia and more
- Feb. 22: Presentation
- Mar. 1: The job search process
- Mar. 8: Presentation
- Mar. 15: SPRING BREAK (no colloquium)
- Mar. 22: The role of reading and writing NOW
- Mar. 29: Presentation
- Apr. 5: AERA prep talks
- Apr. 12: AERA prep talks
- Apr. 19: (No formal presentation. Meet in 444 to share lunch and chat.)
- Apr. 26: Presentation
- May 4: Pizza party— last day

REQUIREMENTS: This is a course in which the main goal is to build community, to learn about each other as well as the field, and to gain knowledge of research topics you may want to pursue. The ONLY requirement is attendance. That being said, if you're taking this class for credit and an emergency arises preventing you from coming to colloquium, let me know about your circumstances.

Theme this time: General professional development for emerging scholars in our field