Course Description:

Psychology of Women is the study of women's experiences, issues, and behavior in the context of psychological theory and research. This class integrates many sub disciplines of psychology, including physiological, personality, developmental, social, abnormal, and applied psychology. This course will explore a variety of topics relevant to the psychology of women, including for example, theories of women's personality, gender socialization, sex differences, victimization, oppression, and motherhood. We will also discuss the ways that SES, culture, ethnicity, and sexual orientation impact the psychology of women. Grades will be based on the cumulative number of points earned in the class from the following elements:

Exams:	300 points total
Pop Quizzes:	70 points total
Journals:	60 points total
Critique papers:	50 points total
Personal reflection paper:	50 points
Participation:	50 points total
	Total Points = 580

The following scale will be used to determine final grades:

	540-580 points = A	522-539 points = A-
504-521 points = B+	481-503 points = B	464-480 points = B-
447-463 points = C+	423-446 points = C	406-422 points = C-
	348-405 points = D
	347 or less = F

Exams: There will be three exams covering information provided in the lecture and the text. The exams will consist of short answer, essay, methods problems, and multiple choice questions. Each exam is worth 100 points. The final will have a cumulative section.

Pop Quizzes:

There will be 9 unannounced pop quizzes given in class. These quizzes will have 5 short answer or multiple-choice questions based on reading and lecture material. Furthermore, the quizzes serve as practice items for the exams. Quizzes are worth 10 points each and your two lowest quiz scores (including zeros) will be dropped. There will be no make-ups for quizzes.

Journals:

Students are expected to maintain a journal and each journal must be at least 2 pages long. The entries are opportunities to reflect your personal observations of issues related to the course, your reaction to this information, and reflections on what you have learned. Journals are worth 20 points each. Journals must be TYPED in Times New Roman 12 point font with 1 inch margins. Please upload your journals to CANVAS.

Critique Papers:

Students will be asked to write two critique papers throughout the course of the semester. The first critique will be based on your analysis of a movie that has themes related to the psychology of women. The second paper will be based on a song that addresses some gender concept discussed in the class. Specific criteria related to these papers will be posted on CANVAS. These critiques are worth 25 points each. Critique papers must be TYPED in Times New Roman 12 point font with 1 inch margins. Please upload your papers to CANVAS.

Personal Reflection paper:

You will be required to complete a 5-7 page reflection paper in this course. This paper should summarize your personal experience in the course. Journals should serve as a good source of data about how you were feeling about material in the course. This paper should include what you felt was the most important part of the class, a reflection on your personal growth, and a reflection on the course material and discussions. This personal reflection paper is worth 50 points. The personal reflection paper must be TYPED in Times New Roman 12 point font with 1 inch margins, and it must include page numbers. Please upload your paper to CANVAS.

Attendance & Participation:

You are expected to attend and be prepared for every class period. Class discussion is usually based on the readings in the course. Therefore, you are expected to be an INFORMED participant in class discussion. You are allowed three unexcused absences for the course. After the third absence, you must provide valid documentation explaining your absence. This documentation must be approved by Dr. Awad. More than 3 unexcused absences will affect your final grade:

fourth Unexcused Absence: Loss of one letter grade (The best grade you can make in the course is a "B") fifth Unexcused Absence: Loss of two letter grades (The best grade you can make in the course is a "C") sixth Unexcused Absence: Loss of three letter grades (The best grade you can make in the course is a "D") seventh Unexcused Absence: Automatic grade of "F"

One make-up exam will be offered for students with excused absences for an exam date. To obtain an excused absence, you must:

- ❖ Provide a written note with your name, and the day you will be/ were absent, verification for the absence (e.g., doctor's visit documentation*, sports meet, class field trip, obituary).
 - For illnesses or doctor's visits, the physician's note must state that you were physically unable to attend class or it was medically inadvisable for you to do so.
- ❖ If you miss class due to an emergency, you must email Dr. Awad with a note explaining the absence no more than 48 hours after the missed class day.
- ❖ You must make up the exam by the next class day after the absence (or when you are physically able to attend class).

Religious Holidays:

Religious holy days sometimes conflict with class and examination schedules. If you miss an examination, work assignment, or other project due to the observance of a religious holy day you will be given an opportunity to complete the work missed within a reasonable time after the absence. It is the policy of The University of Texas at Austin that you must notify each of your instructors at least fourteen days prior to the classes scheduled on dates you will be absent to observe a religious holy day.

Policies

Laptops & Cell Phones

Laptop use is not permitted during class time. Cell phones should be turned off or put on a QUIET vibrate or silent mode. No texting during class please.

UT Honor Code

The core values of The University of Texas at Austin are learning, discovery, freedom, leadership, individual opportunity, and responsibility. Each member of the university is expected to uphold these values through integrity, honesty, trust, fairness, and respect toward peers and community.

Academic Integrity

You and other students are expected to "maintain absolute integrity and a high standard of individual honor in scholastic work" undertaken at the University (Sec. 11-801, Institutional Rules on Student Services and Activities). This is a very basic expectation that is further reinforced by the University's Honor Code. At a minimum, you should complete any assignments, exams, and other scholastic endeavors with the utmost honesty, which requires you to: (1) acknowledge the contributions of other sources to your scholastic efforts; (2) complete your assignments independently unless expressly authorized to seek or obtain assistance in preparing them; (3) follow instructions for assignments and exams, (4) observe the standards of your academic discipline and (5) avoid engaging in any form of academic dishonesty on behalf of yourself or another student.

Students found guilty of academic dishonesty (including all forms of cheating) will receive a grade of 0 (note the academic dishonesty policy refers to all work and tests in the course, not just exams). For further information about academic dishonesty, please visit: http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/sjs/acint_student.php

CANVAS:

This course uses Canvas, a Web-based course management system in which a password-protected site is created for each course. You will be responsible for checking the Canvas course site regularly for class work and announcements. As with all computer systems, there are occasional scheduled downtimes as well as unanticipated disruptions. Notification of these disruptions will be posted on the Canvas login page. Scheduled downtimes are not an excuse for late work. However, if there is an unscheduled downtime for a significant period of time, I will make an adjustment if it occurs close to the due date.

Canvas is available at <http://courses.utexas.edu>. Support is provided by the ITS Help Desk at 475-9400 Monday through Friday 8 am to 6 pm, so plan accordingly.

University Email Notification Policy:

All students should become familiar with the University's official e-mail student notification policy. It is the student's responsibility to keep the University informed as to changes in his or her e-mail address. Students are expected to check e-mail on a frequent and regular basis in order to stay current with University-related communications, recognizing that certain communications may be time-critical. It is recommended that e-mail be checked daily, but at a minimum, twice per week. The complete text of this policy and instructions for updating your e-mail address are available at <http://www.utexas.edu/its/policies/emailnotify.html>. In this course e-mail will be used as a means of communication with students. You will be responsible for checking your e-mail regularly for class work and announcements.

Disabilities:

Students with disabilities who require special accommodations need to get a letter that documents the disability from the Services for Students with Disabilities area of the Office of the Dean of Students (471-6259 voice or 471-4641) TTY for users who are deaf or hard of hearing). This letter should be presented to the instructor in each course at the beginning of the semester and accommodations needed should be discussed at that time. Five business days before an exam the student should remind the instructor of any testing accommodations that will be needed. See website below for more information: <http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/ssd/providing.php>

Emergency Evacuation Policy and Other Emergency Instructions:

Occupants of buildings on The University of Texas at Austin campus are required to evacuate buildings when a fire alarm is activated. Alarm activation or announcement requires exiting and assembling outside.

Familiarize yourself with all exit doors of each classroom and building you may occupy. Remember that the nearest exit door may not be the one you used when entering the building.

Students requiring assistance in evacuation shall inform their instructor in writing during the first week of class.

In the event of an evacuation, follow the instruction of faculty or class instructors.

Do not re-enter a building unless given instructions by the following: The University of Texas at Austin Police Department, or Fire Prevention Services office.
