COURSE DESCRIPTION AND REQUIREMENTS

Description:

Children's Literature (INF 322T) is a survey course in the evaluation, selection, and proper and creative use of books and other media with children ages 0 to 14.

Objectives:

In this course, students will engage in extensive reading of children's books to:

- develop their capacity to critically read, analyze, and respond to a diverse body of literature
- identify and evaluate the elements of various genres of children's literature
- apply knowledge of children, their development, and interests to the selection and recommendation of appropriate literature
- apply knowledge of selection and evaluation criteria to books created for children
- choose and create activities to use in the K-8 classroom to extend children's knowledge and appreciation for literature

Expectations:

INF 322T: Children's Literature is not a lecture course. Instead, classes are student-centered and rely heavily on whole class discussions, small group work, and individual writing and reflection. During class, you will be expected to collaborate with your peers, think critically about the course material, and respond to works of children's literature in a variety of ways. Come prepared to participate and to play an active role in your own learning.

While in class, the focus of your attention should be on the course material and assigned classroom activities. Much of the work you do will require the use of a laptop or other device. Plan to use your laptop or other device only for our in-class work. It is considered unprofessional and can also be a distraction to others to use your device for other activities during class.

Be courteous to others during class discussions. All student contributions to the discussion are valued in this course. Students are expected to be respectful of other students and their opinions.

Readings:

- Required Textbook: Essentials of Children's Literature, 8th ed., (2013), by Kathy G. Short, Carol Lynch-Brown, & Carl M. Tomlinson
- Required Canvas Readings: Additional reading assignments will be posted to this site. There is no printed course packet for this course.
- Required Children's Books:
 1. Charlotte's Web by E.B. White
 2. The Wednesday Wars by Gary Schmidt
 3. The Crossover by Kwame Alexander
 4. Wonder by R.J. Palacio
 5. The Golden Compass by Philip Pullman
 6. Better Nate Than Ever by Tim Federle
 7. The Tale of Despereaux by Kate DiCamillo
 8. The Giver by Lois Lowry
 9. Dead End in Norvelt by Jack Gantos
 10. El Deafo by Cece Bell
 11. Brown Girl Dreaming by Jacqueline Woodson

Grading:

Final grades will be determined on the basis of the following rubric. Please note: to ensure fairness, all numbers are absolute and will not be rounded up or down at any stage. Thus, a B- will be inclusive of all scores of 80.000 through 83.999. The University does not recognize the grade of A+.

A = 94-100

A- = 90-93

B+ = 87-89

B = 84-86

B- = 80-83
C+ = 77-79
C = 74-76
C- = 70-73
D+ = 67-69
D = 64-66
D- = 60-63
F = 0-60

Students taking the class CR/F must earn at least a 60 average to earn a CR. (Graduate students must earn at least a 70 average to earn a CR.) The grade of X (incomplete) will be given only in cases of emergencies that have been reported at the time of the emergency.

Grades will be based on:

• Online Assignments and Quizzes	20%
• In-Class Participation, Quizzes, and Activities	40%
• Midterm Exam	20%
• Final Exam	20%
Total	100%

Online Modules and Quizzes (20%)

Modules for each week's material will be posted on Canvas. These may include readings, videos, and short assignments. Each module will include a brief open-book quiz on the assigned readings. These quizzes must be completed prior to the start of class each day.

In-Class Participation and Activities (40%)

We will use our in-class time to build upon the assigned readings and explore the course material in more depth. In most cases, students will be completing individual or small group activities in-class as well as engaging in discussions and group assignments. Partner and group in-class assignments may not be made up if missed.

Students are expected to come to class prepared to actively participate each and every day. Please bring a fully charged, internet connected device as well as the required children's book with you to class each day. For many classes, students will also be asked to bring an additional book with them (from the PCL, Austin Public Library, or other library) to use as part of the in-class assignments.

Midterm and Final Exams (20% each)

The questions for the exams will be taken from materials discussed or viewed in class, assigned readings from the textbook and Canvas, and the required children's books.

Students who arrive more than 15 minutes late to an exam will not be allowed to take the exam.

All exams will be administered in class via Canvas. Students are expected to come to class with a fully charged, internet-connected device to take the exams. If a student does not have a smartphone, tablet, or laptop, arrangements may be made in advance with the Professor and TA Pool and a device will be provided. Please pay close attention to the exam dates listed in this syllabus and plan ahead. We will not be able to accommodate students who forget devices!

If you have a letter from the Office of the Dean of Students that entitles you to special test taking options, effort will be made to accommodate your needs.

Attendance:

Attend all scheduled classes and arrive on time. Late arrivals and early departures are very disruptive.

Due Dates:

All work must be turned in by the due date. No late work will be accepted.

Partner and group in-class assignments may not be made up if missed. Individual assignments may only be made up in the case of an emergency. A student with an emergency should notify the instructor and present documented evidence of the excuse as soon as possible. The term “emergency” is defined as:

1. Serious illness or accident regarding the student, or
2. Death, serious illness, or accident in the student's immediate family.

Students with Disabilities Information:

The University of Texas at Austin provides, upon request, appropriate academic accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. For more information, contact the Office of the Dean of Students at 512-471-6259 or 512-471-4641 TTY.

Religious Holidays:

By UT Austin policy, a student must provide notification of a pending absence at least fourteen days prior to the date of observance of a religious holy day. The student will be given an opportunity to complete the missed work within a reasonable time after the absence.

Academic Dishonesty:

University of Texas rules in regard to academic dishonesty are enforced in this class. Please do not plagiarize, as instances of plagiarism will result in an automatic F (fail) for the entire course. Read about academic dishonesty here.
